

Dwyfor Evans

Managing Director, Head of APAC Macro Strategy
State Street Global Markets

Biography

Dwyfor Evans is Managing Director and Head of APAC Macro Strategy at State Street Global Markets, specializing in EM and based in Hong Kong.

Prior to joining State Street Global Markets in 2007, he was VP and EMEA Strategist for Bank of America in London. Before this, he was an economist for Moscow Narodny Bank in London, where he undertook sovereign credit research for EM, specifically Russia and Eastern Europe. He has also worked on investment and tax policies in the former Soviet Union and on energy policy for the UK Government Economic Service. He began his career undertaking an internship in Asian equity analysis for an investment management firm in Hong Kong.

He earned a PhD in development economics from Cardiff Business School, University of Wales and graduated with a MSc in international economics, banking and finance, also from Cardiff Business School. He has published widely in the fields of development economics and finance, and is a regular media contributor.

Yuting Shao

Assistant Vice President, Macro Strategist
State Street Global Markets

Biography

Yuting Shao is a Macro Strategist at State Street Global Markets focusing on EM Asia, and is based in Hong Kong. Prior to this role, she worked at the International Monetary Fund as a Research Analyst in the Strategy, Policy and Review Department, focusing on FX and cross-border capital flows.

Yuting graduated with a BA in International Relations and Economics from Boston University, and holds a Master's Degree in International Economics and Finance from Johns Hopkins University.